Editors Note—George Lowe, E. Kocur, Asst. Editor, J. Rogers, Dorothy Goguen.

We, the staff of the 1949 MARINER, sincerely hope that this book, on which we have spent much time and effort, may help our classmates to preserve the many pleasant memories of their four years at NEW BEDFORD VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL.

School Song

Mids't the spires of old New Bedford
Waves the white and green
Stands our glorious school Vocational
Noblest ever seen.

Chorus:

Let our voices, raised in chorus
Loud her glory sing,
And the praises of Vocational
Through our fair land ring.

Loyal graduates from her portals
Bring to Industry
All their skill and all knowledge,
To them - - - - Honor Be!

Miss Margaret K. Sloane

We, the girls of the Class of 1949, gratefully dedicate this book to MISS MARGARET K. SLOANE in deep appreciation for the untiring help and understanding that she gave to each and every one of us. She has been not only a teacher but a dear friend to us, as well. We wish for her continued success and happiness in future years.

Mr. Francis Holt

To Mr. Francis Holt, we the boys of the Class of June 1949, gratefully dedicate this book in sincere appreciation of his long and loyal service to the students of New Bedford Vocational High. His untiring efforts have earned him the respect, admiration, and devotion of all those whose privilege it has been to be included in his long list of students.

THE MAC - VETS

Three veterans, Wilbur Teves, Louis Silvia, and Alfred Ramos were instrumental in forming an organization, whose members would consist of veterans of World War II.

The name "Mac-Vets" was given to the organization in honor of the school Director, Mr. William R. Mackintosh. Often the radio announcers and the news reporters refer to the school athletes as "Mr. Mac's Boys". Hence, it was suggested, "Why not consider ourselves as "Mr. Mac's Vets".

Those elected to hold office were Alfred Ramos, President; Donald Gates, Vice-President; Leonard Palmer, Secretary; and Charls Marinelli, Treasurer.

The funds raised through "The Mac-Vets" social activities are to be used to help the Senior Class, the Athletic Association, and for other purposes to be decided upon by the club.

"Success Does Not So Much Depend On Eternal Help as on Self-Reliance."

Class Prophecy

CLASS PROPHECY

It is June 1959, ten years after the graduation of the best Senior Class Vocational High School has ever had (?). The class of '49 is having a reunion in Lisbon, Portugal, at the famous "Tournament for Clowns".

At the New Bedford pier the luxury liner, "The S. S. Lucy Evelyn" (the S. S. meanlng still standing) skippered by Admiral Walter Britton, is waiting to sail. As the passengers come up the gang plank we are surprised to see such important people.

A group of Hollywood celebrities is coming aboard first. There is Joseph "Tyrone" Arruda, the idol of the bobby soxers who went out of style in 1950. Jacqueline Barriault, the great singer, with the watery voice,....she sings under water....is with him. Stella Moraes, the number one comedienne of the year, followed by her better half, Lula Miller. Lula is still worrying over whether Stella's jokes are funny or not.

Next I see the amateur soccer team which is going to compete in the tournament. On the team are Leo Veiga, David Churro, Charles Xavier, and Gerard Gaudette. By the way Leo Veiga is still telling the same old corny jokes he got away with in 1949.

Coming aboard we meet Mr. and Mrs. Lester Manchester. Mrs. Manchester is the former Joan Mason. Americo Fernandes, Stanley Sowle, and Maurice Poirier are among the sailors getting ready to sail. They are scrubbing the decks with automatic tooth brushes, controlled by egg beaters.

In the engine room we find Edward Dawson, and Francis Denault shoveling blue steam into the boilers with teaspoons. It keeps them busy.

As the ship sails down the Acushnet River, we see sitting on the main deck Jay Hiller, the master mechanic, still wondering why black oil comes out of a Chrysler product.

Nearby, Roger Mayer, a Ford specialist, and Gerard Messier, a Plymouth man, are having their usual argument about each other's product.

Near the swimming pool is a group of well known athletic coaches. Among them we see Len Moniz and Gerry Lewis, coaches for Mt. Carmel, and Steve McCann, coach for the Centro Luzo Club. They are admiring some fashion models which include Rosa Fortes, Irene Medeiros and Joan Heuberger.

Jane Winsper is at the railing with a far away look in her eyes. She is a well known novelist and perhaps she has an idea for starting a new book called "The Art of Turning Green While Sailing". Holding her hand we find Carol Foley trying to nurse Jane back from a green look to white again.

Down in the ballroom people are dancing to the rhythm of Lenny Whittle and "His Rhythmless Orchestra". Some of the band members are Bob Texeira, George Silva, and Roger LeBlanc with Nelson Hebert as the business manager. At the insistance of the crowd Rowenna Olliveria does her famous imitations of such singers as Sara Vaughn and Ella Fitzgerald.

Among the dancers I see Dorothy Goguen, Joan Gomes, Ruth Hayes, and Angelina Gomes with their husbands, who just can't seem to sneak away for a minute with the boys.

Delicious meals on board are served in the Blue Goose Cafeteria. The meals are concocted by Doris Rounds, Phyllis Joseph, and Clarice Fowler, dietitians of world fame. As we walk out the door we are greeted by Phyllis Brown who has a thriving business selling bicarbonate of soda. Each meal is carefully burned by the noted chefs, Carlton Smith and John Ventura. Sitting in the galley is Paul Gelinas, the scientist, who is crossing an orange with a walnut so you can crack it and peel the walnut.

Reporters from "The Standard Times", namely Mary Leonard and Helen Lubera, are covering the initiation of Joseph Baptiste and Richard Rebola into "The Davy Jones Seafarers Union". These boys went through the hilarious procedure of being covered with molasses and feathers and then made to walk the plank. At the end of the plank there was a crack. Oh, Oh, they forgot to put water in hole number 4!

Lillian Naef and Frank Gonet are having a grand time taking up space at the wavery rail and Roland Morin, a cabin boy, is wiping foot prints off the bulk head.

Strolling along the deck is Jerry Rogers. Suddenly he trips over a deck chair and you can't guess who is in it? It is none other than Carol Cunningham Rogers.

Being as romantic after five years of marriage as he was in '49, Jerry leans over and says "Honey, don't you think Ted Williams is wonderful this year?

Barbara Walsh and Aldo Luminello playing twin accordions are causing a sensation among the passengers with their own rendition of that ever popular Machine Shop classic "It's Tragic". Mildred Bettencourt with her guitar is singing "I Love You For Seventy Mental Reasons".

Every night Benny Dudek, Donald Gates, Robert Plamer, and George Ribeiro, are seen in the lounge drinking their famous "Happy Juice" which they say prevents seasickness. To be able to drink this juice you must have a well-lined stomach---well lined with cast iron. The boys hope to make a fortune selling it to one of the more prominent business men of Portugal, Gerald Riding. Gerry has established himself in the refined profession of collecting "arbagega". This is pig Latin for garbage. Gerry delivers this "arbagega" to one of the most picturesque hog farms in Portugal. It's owned by William White.

As we arrive at our destination we register at the local hotel and here meet Margaret Pearson, owner of the "Sloppy Joe" Dress Shop and Lillian Medeiros, proprietress of "Dilly Dilly Art Shop" nearby.

After enjoying some delicious linguicia and eggs, the first satisfying meal since our departure from the States, we start on our long walk down a short street to the Cove Road Stadium.

We see many shops and all at once we spy Madam Maria's Beauty Salon for Handsome Harrys. It is owned by Mary Machado. As we enter the shop we find Gertrude McKenna giving Harry Hopwood a fingerwave.

At the tournament we see Raymond Clapp, William Correira, Norman Frechette, and Eugene Gemme who make up the crew of mad Carpenters enlarging the great stadium. The foremen in charge of these daring operations are none other than Hector Margeson and Abraham Perry.

Richard Peckham, Arthur Smith, Louis Whitlow, and James Mulroy are trying to sell electric eels to the population of Lisbon.

We also have with us Edwin Kocor, that famous jet plane mechanic. With him are some disc jockeys, Owen Wood, Robert Wilbur, Alan Waddington, and Robert Tripp who are employed with station S-L-A-P H-A-P-P-Y.

The heiress of the "Woolworth Millions", Shirley Martens, is here with her chauffeur, the nationally known speed king, Teddy Cioper.

Here also are three unknown scientists, Norman Dumont, Richard Francis, Wilfred Gamache who have been trying for the past ten years to discover how long a short circuit is.

Cruising around the stadium in our little kiddie car we find George Lowe and his family patiently patronizing the "Wait and Hope Hot Dog Stand". It is owned by Alfred Ramos, Leo Charbonneau, Benjamin DePiro, and Fred Gorczyca. They own a pre-fabricated house business. These houses are guaranteed not to stand up.

The tournament is brought to a climax by the most famous bull fighting combination in existence. They are known from New Bedford to Dartmouth for their daring encounters with ferocious bulls.

Coming around the stadium tripping out ahead of himself in his rocking shoes is the world famous announcer, John Johansen. As he starts we hear —— "Ladies and Gentlemen! Turn on those lights!" The lights have just gone out in the stadium. To the rescue rush three electricians, Tom Bancroft, Allen Andrade, and John Bochman. Now the lights are on again, but there has been a mistake. Our great matador, James Grumley, has accidently wounded Joe Kolz instead of the bull. Joe was supposed to aggravate the bull but now the bull is aggravating him. Mrs. Nancy Barrett, the former Nancy Brown, substitutes for Crumley by standing atop a beautiful race horse. "Old Dobbin" by name. The sky seems to be getting dark and it looks like a Portugese rain storm. Everyone runs for shelter so I had better run, too. A few more days of fun and reminiscing and the reunion comes to an end. The old gang depart for all corners of the globe but most of us are off for New Bedford, our old Home Town.

Good-bye Portugal! It has been nice seeing you!

AT GRADUATING TIME

'49

The graduates are going forth—
God bless them every one!—
To run this hard and stubborn world
Just as it should be run;
But much I fear they'll find that facts
Don't always track with dreams;
And running this old world is not
As easy as it seems.

The world has garlands and applause
At graduating time;
And may forget him the next day,
When he attempts to climb.
Life is a battle where each one
Must seek and hold his own.
He who would rise above the clouds
Must scale the heights alone.

This is the rule of life to-day,
As it has ever been:
The world bestows its smiles on those
Who have the strength to win.
Beneath all outward semblances
It looks for merit true.
It little cares how much you know,
But asks, what can you do?

Class Will

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the class of 1949, of New Bedford Vocational High School, of the City of New Bedford, State of Massachusetts, the County of Bristol being of sound mind and memory (there may be a question about this) do declare this to be our last will and testament.

We hereby bequeath the following:

To Mr. Mackintosh, we wish to express our profound thanks and appreciation for the deep interest and care he has given us in the past four years.

To Miss Early, we leave our appreciation and affection.

To the Faculty, we extend our deepest gratitude for their endeavors to make our paths in life easier.

To our class advisors, we leave our sincere thanks for their co-operation and help in solving our many problems.

To Miss Sloane, we leave our sincere gratitude for the help she so willingly has given to make this book a success.

To Mr. Foley, the senior class leaves its many thanks for all the help he has given us in preparing the yearbook.

To the Juniors, we leave the privilege of becoming seniors.

To the Sophomores, the honor of having class officers and advisors.

To the Freshmen, we leave three happy years of struggling for their diplomas.

Barbara Walsh leaves Mrs. Oldfield still wondering where in the world she is.

Mary Leonard leaves a buglar in the Electrical Department with a blue note.

"Angie" Gomes leaves to join "Joe" in Bridgeport.

"Freddy" Gorczyca leaves Henry Ferreira to haunt someone else.

Stella Moraes leaves by jet propulsion.

Lula Miller leaves her worries to some unfortunate junior.

"Al" Ramos leaves his place to 'punch-out' to "Manny" Macedo.

Lillian Medeiros leaves taking Mrs. Oldfield's magazines with her.

Clarice Fowler leaves her carrots to anyone who wants them.

Ruth Hays leaves to enter Matrimonial University with "Windy."

"Al" Lumienello leaves daring one of next years seniors to smoke his pipe in Mr. Holt's room.

Mildred Bettencourt leaves Mrs. Cameron without a little 'Miss Fix-it.'

The two Jerry's, Rogers and Messier, leave the Orchid Diner minus two customers.

Gertrude McKenna leaves taking her appetite with her.

Bill Isherwood leaves Mr. Horton a pair of roller skates, the way he runs around "Auto:" he certainly needs them.

Joan Mason leaves her books to some junior who will have to erase the name of "Lester" from the covers.

Roger Mayer leaves Rita reluctantly.

"Dot" Goguen leaves so-o-o in love. Could his name be Ray?

Paul Gelinas leaves his shop coat to the smartest junior.

Carol Foley regretfully leaves her algebra period with Mr. Mac to some future nurse.

Leo Veiga leaves with all his corny jokes.

Magaret Pearson leaves Miss Sloane minus a chatterbox in English.

"Joe" Kolz leaves his parking space to Luen Johnson.

Jane Winsper leaves the tardy book in the office full.

Stanley Sowle leaves all his math problems to Mr. Oldfield.

Rosa Fortes leaves wishing she could join Cliff in California.

Gerald 'Red' J. Riding leaves the girls with nothing to look at.

Phyllis Joseph leaves her attendance record to Mrs. Oldfield.

"Bob" Texeira leaves his visits to Mr. Pittendreigh's office to Jordan Perry.

Kay Talbot leaves wishing Emmett were here to leave with her.

Abraham Perry leaves his bow and arrow to Andrade Allain.

Doris Rounds leaves her long ride from Westport to anyone who can take it.

Carol Cunningham leaves the couch in senior recreation room without an occupant.

Harry Hopwood leaves his address book to the greatest flirt in the junior class.

Shirley Martens leaves Mr. Mac without a human questionnaire in Algebra.

Robert Palmer leaves to join Ann. (Happy Days).

Carlton Smith is just leaving. "Good Bye."

Edwin Kocur is leaving while the leaving is good.

Joseph Alves leaves with his reputation for staying out of trouble intact.

Amos Souza leaves for Portugal with Viera.

Roland Morin leaves Mr. Holt a new cash drawer.

Whitlow leaves Crowell his soap box.

Allen Waddington leaves the school happy.

Michael Smith leaves Mr. Wareing reading code rules to the juniors.

Robert Tripp leaves the job of selling tickets to Chauncey Shaw and Dick Theg.

Raymond Clapp leaves an empty seat in the Rochester bus.

Benjamin DePiro leaves Hansen with his headaches.

Arthur Smith leaves the art of blowing fuses to Donald Cardinal.

James Peers leaves the Vocational payroll with profound regret.

To Everyone, Good Luck and Happy Days at Voke!

In witness thereof, we set our hand, seal, and signature on this twenty-second day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Signed, sealed, and declared by the Class of 1949 of the New Bedford Vocational High School to be their last will and testament.
